

Competitive Honors - NEW

"We should develop our intellect so that we may be of the greatest use to ourselves and others as we assume our position in such duties as it may please God to call us."

The Librarian's duty is to encourage a desire for good literature, arts and sciences. This year, we're encouraging Jobies and Bees who have participated in literature, art, and science competitions in the community to share their work with their Jobie family.

Categories

Literature	Participate in a literature writing (fiction, non-fiction, poetry, drama) contest sponsored by another organization.
Arts	Participate in a creative arts (fine, performing, applied, digital) contest sponsored by another organization.
Sciences	Participate in a science fair/competition sponsored by another organization.
Supreme JDI	Participate in the Jobie Jingle Challenge*, organized by the Supreme Musician and Supreme Librarian.
